| 1.      | Welcome &amp; Minutes Review  |  |
|                | Minutes of the previous meeting were reviewed, with no pressing updates.   |  |
| 2.      | Admin Updates   |  |
|                | Discussed whether Thursday meetings were still viable for all members. Consensus agreed that it was, though it may change as we shift to in person.All participants had completed or were finishing the required training for City volunteers.   | PAC Members to confirm schedules for future availability and prepare for in-person  |
| 3.      | Programming Items   |  |
|                | PAC Members were encouraged to narrow down ideas for the long term project of the year, to be confirmed next month. The goal is to decide on a project for PAC to work on and make it a long term benefit to the community.Current City programs were discussed, namely the return to in-person programming and the return of Free Teen Programs on the 14 th .March Break Programs and volunteer opportunities were discussed, with PAC Members being provided opportunities for additional hours. Availability was a concern so PAC Members will confirm dates and email in availability. | PAC Members to brainstorm and discuss long term program plans, to be presented next month.PAC Members will check availability to see if they can volunteer for March Break events. |
| 4.      | Virtual Programs  |  |
|                | Virtual Programming was discussed, and Members were asked if youth enjoyed virtual programming, or if  | No Action Required   |

|------------------------|--|--|
|                        | it was something we should attempt to shift away from. The consensus was to move away from virtual programming, in most cases, and shift to in person. Small exceptions were discussed, such as E-Sports, some art classes, etc. |  |
| 5.              | School Schedules  |  |
|                        | School schedules were discussed, with PAC members returning to a semester-based format rather than Quadesters. This does not bear a drastic shift in timing but could increase workload across classes.                          | PAC members are to provide notice if schools' workloads begin to increase, so adjustments can be made to the schedules to accommodate. |
| 6.              | Free Teen   |  |
|                        | The return to in-person free teen programming begins march 14 th .  | Pac will spread the news through in persona and over social media.   |
|                        | Other Business  |  |
|                        | First aid and CPR dates will be booked shortly, based on the number interested and availability.   | Pac will confirm interest in this training for Liam to book and cover costs.   |
|                        | Next Meeting  |  |
